Keynote Speaker- David LaMotte

David LaMotte, is an award-winning song writer, children's book author, and founder of a successful non-profit for schools in Guatemala. In 2008 LaMotte suspended his music career to give his focus to his other vocational passion, peacemaking. He completed a Rotary World Peace Fellowship in International Relations, Peace and Conflict Resolution at the University of Queensland in Brisbane, Australia and the Gandhian development organization in Andhra Pradesh, India.

In 2004, David and his wife Deanna founded PEG Partners, a non-profit organization that supports literacy, critical thought, and artistic expression in Guatemala. He is also a consultant on Peace and Justice for the North Carolina Council of Churches, and recently completed his sixth and final year on the AFSC Nobel Peace Prize Nominating Task Group.
