

Presbytery in BriefAugust 9, 2020

The Stated Meeting of Providence Presbytery was held on August 9, 2020 as it conducted its first virtual meeting hosted by the Uriel Presbyterian Church, Chester, S.C. Retiring moderator CRE Lisa Johnson, Bowling Green, called the meeting to order and opened with prayer. CRE Max Russell, Union First, was elected to serve as moderator. Ninety-nine commissioners and guests attended.

Appreciation is given to Rhett Eckhardt, Jill Wilson and Rose Lemmons-Berry for all their expertise and planning. Thanks to all who took part by joining into this meeting, for the patience extended and the joy expressed.

Meeting Highlights: Worship leadership from the Uriel, Allison Creek, Hermon, and Hopewell Churches; Letarshia Robinson and CRE Paul Smith enrolled as Candidates; Honorable Retired Status was conferred upon the Rev. Dr. G. Harriss Ricks; Martin Stokes and Thomas Robinson were welcomed to be Honorable Retired members; Examined for Installation – James Davis to Bethesda (K), Matt Rich to Unity, Nick Setzer to York First; the Resolution of Appreciation for Mary Love Hammond; Heard reports from Synod of South Atlantic and the 224th General Assembly of PCUSA; Gave concurrence on the Statement on Racism and Justice for Ahmud Arbery; Passed the Resolution: A Call to Action in Dismantling Structural Racism.

Next meeting will be on October 11, 2020, Lancaster First Presbyterian Church. In reaffirming the observance of health and safety guidelines, the Presbytery will send additional meeting instructions to the churches.

Presbytery in BriefAugust 9, 2020

The Stated Meeting of Providence Presbytery was held on August 9, 2020 as it conducted its first virtual meeting hosted by the Uriel Presbyterian Church, Chester, S.C. Retiring moderator CRE Lisa Johnson, Bowling Green, called the meeting to order and opened with prayer. CRE Max Russell, Union First, was elected to serve as moderator. Ninety-nine commissioners and guests attended.

Appreciation is given to Rhett Eckhardt, Jill Wilson and Rose Lemmons-Berry for all their expertise and planning. Thanks to all who took part by joining into this meeting, for the patience extended and the joy expressed.

Meeting Highlights: Worship leadership from the Uriel, Allison Creek, Hermon, and Hopewell Churches; Letarshia Robinson and CRE Paul Smith enrolled as Candidates; Honorable Retired Status was conferred upon the Rev. Dr. G. Harriss Ricks; Martin Stokes and Thomas Robinson were welcomed to be Honorable Retired members; Examined for Installation – James Davis to Bethesda (K), Matt Rich to Unity, Nick Setzer to York First; the Resolution of Appreciation for Mary Love Hammond; Heard reports from Synod of South Atlantic and the 224th General Assembly of PCUSA; Gave concurrence on the Statement on Racism and Justice for Ahmud Arbery; Passed the Resolution: A Call to Action in Dismantling Structural Racism.

Next meeting will be on October 11, 2020, Lancaster First Presbyterian Church. In reaffirming the observance of health and safety guidelines, the Presbytery will send additional meeting instructions to the churches.