

Summary of the August 14, 2022, Presbytery Meeting

The Presbytery was called to order in prayer by Moderator Gwen Cunningham. First time Elders and Guests were recognized. Greetings were brought by Rev. Joyce Lieberman, Synod of the South Atlantic Executive and Stated Clerk, and David Staniunas, Record Archivist at the Presbyterian Historical Society.

Worship was led by the General Assembly Commissioners, Rev. Mark Verdery, Rob Jones, and Mary McInville Adamson, using actual music from the Assembly and the Litany of Repentance, which addresses issues of race and gender justice.

The General Assembly Commissioners gave their summaries of the hybrid General Assembly Meeting, sharing their encounters with other commissioners, worship, protestors, supportive advocates as they dealt with personal reactions to headlines and news stories of the day. All spoke of the deep appreciation of the PC(USA) discussion and decision-making processes of the denomination. Involvement in the Assembly expanded their faith and their engagement with their congregations.

The next Presbytery meeting will be in person at Grace (Y) on October 9, 2022, convening at 2:30 pm.

The Presbytery meeting was recorded and can be seen on the Providence Presbytery website. www.providencepres.org Click the Calendar Link, then click the 2022 Presbytery meetings link. The video is there with the password for the meeting. You can see the worship and hear all three reports.

Summary of the August 14, 2022, Presbytery Meeting

The Presbytery was called to order in prayer by Moderator Gwen Cunningham. First time Elders and Guests were recognized. Greetings were brought by Rev. Joyce Lieberman, Synod of the South Atlantic Executive and Stated Clerk, and David Staniunas, Record Archivist at the Presbyterian Historical Society.

Worship was led by the General Assembly Commissioners, Rev. Mark Verdery, Rob Jones, and Mary McInville Adamson, using actual music from the Assembly and the Litany of Repentance, which addresses issues of race and gender justice.

The General Assembly Commissioners gave their summaries of the hybrid General Assembly Meeting, sharing their encounters with other commissioners, worship, protestors, supportive advocates as they dealt with personal reactions to headlines and news stories of the day. All spoke of the deep appreciation of the PC(USA) discussion and decision-making processes of the denomination. Involvement in the Assembly expanded their faith and their engagement with their congregations.

The next Presbytery meeting will be in person at Grace (Y) on October 9, 2022, convening at 2:30 pm.

The Presbytery meeting was recorded and can be seen on the Providence Presbytery website. www.providencepres.org Click the Calendar Link, then click the 2022 Presbytery meetings link. The video is there with the password for the meeting. You can see the worship and hear all three reports.