

Presbytery in Brief, October 9, 2022 Presbytery in Brief.

The meeting was hosted by the Grace Presbyterian Church, Fort Mill, SC.; Rev. Dr. Joanne Sizoo, Pastor. The Former Moderator, Carson Overstreet opened the meeting and entered the name of Vice-Moderator Mike Conn (elder, Tirzah Y), to be elected as moderator while Moderator Gwen Cunningham was with her family caring for brother, CRE William Gaither. Faithfully Ridiculous Over God event for church leaders and members was high-lighted, please register by October 20, for this November 1 event. The status of Honorably Retired was conferred upon the Reverends Matt Brooke Home and Garland Stokes Hart. Barbara Kurz was recognized for her 30 years of service to Providence Presbytery.

The Worship team (Grace Deaton, Jonathan Davis, Mia Levetan, and Rob Jones) led the assembly in worship based upon the Scripture 3 John 2-4. CRE William Johnson, Camden Second, was welcomed and introduced. Honorably Retired David Leinenger, was welcomed to become a minister member of Providence Presbytery. The Second Reading and Approval was given on the "Procedures for Receiving Ministers from other Denominations", while "Process for Churches Who are Calling New Pastoral Leadership in Providence Presbytery" was received for a First Reading. The new Job Descriptions for the two positions of Stated Clerk, and Executive Presbyter were presented and approved. Mission and Outreach highlighted the importance for the Matthew 25 Invitation to become an energizing focal point to doing its community work. Education and Equipping Team celebrated their two projects: Leaderfest on February 26, 2023 at Rock Hill First, (24+ workshops) and SC Leader of Leaders (Volunteers, Youth Leaders, Educators, Pastors) theme: "Same Table, Different Chairs" on March 14, 2023; keynote speaker: Sarah Griffith Lund. Hoover Haney

Presbytery in Brief, October 9, 2022 Presbytery in Brief.

The meeting was hosted by the Grace Presbyterian Church, Fort Mill, SC.; Rev. Dr. Joanne Sizoo, Pastor. The Former Moderator, Carson Overstreet opened the meeting and entered the name of Vice-Moderator Mike Conn (elder, Tirzah Y), to be elected as moderator while Moderator Gwen Cunningham was with her family caring for brother, CRE William Gaither. Faithfully Ridiculous Over God event for church leaders and members was high-lighted, please register by October 20, for this November 1 event. The status of Honorably Retired was conferred upon the Reverends Matt Brooke Home and Garland Stokes Hart. Barbara Kurz was recognized for her 30 years of service to Providence Presbytery.

The Worship team (Grace Deaton, Jonathan Davis, Mia Levetan, and Rob Jones) led the assembly in worship based upon the Scripture 3 John 2-4. CRE William Johnson, Camden Second, was welcomed and introduced. Honorably Retired David Leinenger, was welcomed to become a minister member of Providence Presbytery. The Second Reading and Approval was given on the "Procedures for Receiving Ministers from other Denominations", while "Process for Churches Who are Calling New Pastoral Leadership in Providence Presbytery" was received for a First Reading. The new Job Descriptions for the two positions of Stated Clerk, and Executive Presbyter were presented and approved. Mission and Outreach highlighted the importance for the Matthew 25 Invitation to become an energizing focal point to doing its community work. Education and Equipping Team celebrated their two projects: Leaderfest on February 26, 2023 at Rock Hill First, (24+ workshops) and SC Leader of Leaders (Volunteers, Youth Leaders, Educators, Pastors) theme: "Same Table, Different Chairs" on March 14, 2023; keynote speaker: Sarah Griffith Lund. Hoover Haney