

Highlights of the June 25, Providence Presbytery Stated Meeting

The meeting opened with a Mini Mission Fair where 11 churches/ministries of Providence Presbytery and 3 agencies shared their missions, totaling 14 new mission opportunities!

Worship was led by the Worship Team with Candidate for Ordination Letarshia Robinson, preaching on Psalm 148.

Reports

Education and Equipping Ministry Team: announced a workshop on Mental Health First Aid led by Robyn Ellison, on January 20, 2014 at Bethelwoods.

Mission and Outreach Committee: heard an update on plans for a mission trip to Honduras for the Eye Clinic and an update on Dimes For Hunger.

Committee on Ministry: Presbytery approved the Ordination of Candidate Letarshia Robinson to the Pleasant Ridge PC in Lancaster, and the transfer of Rev. Parker Lucas as Program Director for Bethelwoods. Moderator Conn conducted the Service of Commissioning for Timothy B. McCullough, CRE for Providence Presbytery, and heard an update from the Board of Pensions.

Administrative Ministry Team: Recognized Communications Coordinator Jill Wilson for 15 years' service to the Presbytery, presented a first read of the 2024 Budget, and Rose Lemmons-Berry gave an update on REALM, the new computer data program for the Presbytery.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry: The Presbytery approved to move Heather Woolard, Bethesda (K) Inquirer for Ministry, to Candidate for Ministry.

Bethelwoods: heard an update on the 2023 camp schedule and introduced Rev. Parker Lucas as the new Program Director.

Coordinating Team: Presbytery approved an Administrative Commission for Mt. Tabor PC(U) with responsibilities, and a Memorandum of Agreement between Providence Presbytery and Tirzah (Y) concerning office space. The new Staffing Model for the Presbytery was approved along with updated job descriptions for an Executive Presbyter and a Stated Clerk. Tim Cureton, co-chair of the Implementation Team gave an update on their progress.

The next meeting is October 22, 2023 at Covenant Presbyterian Church.

Highlights of the June 25, Providence Presbytery Stated Meeting

The meeting opened with a Mini Mission Fair where 11 churches/ministries of Providence Presbytery and 3 agencies shared their missions, totaling 14 new mission opportunities!

Worship was led by the Worship Team with Candidate for Ordination Letarshia Robinson, preaching on Psalm 148.

Reports

Education and Equipping Ministry Team: announced a workshop on Mental Health First Aid led by Robyn Ellison, on January 20, 2014 at Bethelwoods.

Mission and Outreach Committee: heard an update on plans for a mission trip to Honduras for the Eye Clinic and an update on Dimes For Hunger.

Committee on Ministry: Presbytery approved the Ordination of Candidate Letarshia Robinson to the Pleasant Ridge PC in Lancaster, and the transfer of Rev. Parker Lucas as Program Director for Bethelwoods. Moderator Conn conducted the Service of Commissioning for Timothy B. McCullough, CRE for Providence Presbytery, and heard an update from the Board of Pensions.

Administrative Ministry Team: Recognized Communications Coordinator Jill Wilson for 15 years' service to the Presbytery, presented a first read of the 2024 Budget, and Rose Lemmons-Berry gave an update on REALM, the new computer data program for the Presbytery.

Committee on Preparation for Ministry: The Presbytery approved to move Heather Woolard, Bethesda (K) Inquirer for Ministry, to Candidate for Ministry.

Bethelwoods: heard an update on the 2023 camp schedule and introduced Rev. Parker Lucas as the new Program Director.

Coordinating Team: Presbytery approved an Administrative Commission for Mt. Tabor PC(U) with responsibilities, and a Memorandum of Agreement between Providence Presbytery and Tirzah (Y) concerning office space. The new Staffing Model for the Presbytery was approved along with updated job descriptions for an Executive Presbyter and a Stated Clerk. Tim Cureton, co-chair of the Implementation Team gave an update on their progress.

The next meeting is October 22, 2023 at Covenant Presbyterian Church.